Board of Aldermen.

A SCENE—AN ALDERMAN IN CONTEMPT AND ORDERED INTO THE CUSTODY OF THE SERGEANT-AT-ARMS. This board met last evening, President Heary W. Genet in the chair. Mayor Nash, of Rochester, had a seat beside the President and must have been greatly edified by the scene that followed.

Alderman Dayron offered a resolution recommending the expediency of working the roads in the upper part of the city by contract. Referred to the Committee on Alderman Dayron appealed from the decision of the chair.

Alderman Cornell moved that the motion for appeale laid on the table, which was carried.

Alderman Dayron again essayed to speak, asking if a member was not privileged to offer a resolution and read it from his seat.

The Prissman desired the Alderman of the Ninth to take his seat. Too Chair was very unwilling to direct the Alderman of the inth into custody, but if he continued to be so pertinacious he would be compelled to do so.

Alderman Dayron again insisted on his right to offer his resolution.

The PRESIDENT directed the Sergeant at Arms to take the Alderman of the Ninth into custody.

Alderman Dayron again rose.

Alderman Dayrox again rose.

The President.—The Alderman of the Ninth is out of order.

Alderman Dayron.—If the Sergeant at Arms, or any one cise in this Board lays a hand on me, he will do so at his peril.

The Sergeant at Arms (Mr. Gallagher) walked up to the Alderman of the Ninth and stood beside his chair. Alderman Dayrox again saked if a member was out of order in proposing to read a resolution.

Alderman Boots said that inasmuch as that the Alderman focus said that inasmuch as that the Alderman of the Ninth was in contempt, he (Boole) would move that if that gentleman persisted in his present course, he be taken into close custody and kept under lock and key if nocessary.

The following resolution, present by Alderman Dayrox, was then read by the reader of the Board:—

Resolved, if the Board of Councilmen concur. That a joint committee of three members of each Board of the Common Council be appointed to investigate and report whether any undue influence, bribery or corruption was practised upon or by any member of the Common Council or other officer of the city government, to precure the adoption of the said resolution, and that such committee have authority to examine witnesses and papers.

Alderman Boatz moved to lay it on the table, as the matter was coming up in another shape from the Councilmen.
